

To Whom It May Concern,

Barclays Africa testimonial

Flamenco Publishing has been engaged in the editing and proofreading of The Beat, a Pan-African employee magazine at Barclays Africa. Flamenco has excelled at the task – returning polished stories on time and even advising on design. For proofreading, Phakama, the director, would go the extra mile of coming to our offices at the Johannesburg CBD to collect or read finished pages.

We are extremely happy with the service, commitment and passion that Flamenco shows towards the attainment of high publishing standards. We strongly recommend the company's services to anyone wishing to work with true professionals.

Sincerely

Ntokozo Gwamanda

Editor, The Beat
